Delightful private acreage with absolute Hastings River frontage

This 83 acre (33.53 hectares) property is set on a beautiful stretch of the Hastings River only 20 mins from Wauchope.

Featuring a four bedroom double storey brick home there is significant infrastructure in place to enjoy country living with the capacity to run a good-sized herd of cattle and/or have horses.

The ground floor of the home is set up for completely self-contained living with its own kitchen, bathroom, lounge and sunroom.

Upstairs is a further three bedrooms, kitchen, bathroom, lounge room and covered verandah. Both levels of the home have separate air conditioning and a lift that connects the two.

The property benefits from new fencing and provides three paddocks with several dams and comes complete with steel cattle yards, crush and loading ramp.

Additional features include a four bay shed on a concrete slab and a 52 panel freestanding solar installation.

Buyers looking for absolute river frontage and easily managed acres within 20 minutes to town will recognise the versatility and value reflected in this wonderful property.
