458 Ducks Ridge Rd, Comboyne

Lovely renovated home in private location

This wonderfully renovated four bedroom cottage offers a peaceful and private location around 7km from Comboyne township.

Located on a large property the home has around quarter of an acre of securely fenced garden with its own driveway leading to a brand new single colourbond garage.

The home features an open plan air-conditioned living, kitchen and dining zone that connects to a covered timber verandah overlooking paddocks. The kitchen is new, the home has been freshly painted and there is new flooring throughout and a range of new fittings and fixtures such as the air con, built-in wardrobes and bathroom vanity. There is also a nice courtyard area for a morning tea/coffee.

The large main bedroom has french doors to the verandah and the other three bedrooms are all light and bright.

The bathroom has a shower over bath and there is plenty of rainwater storage in two large tanks.

Offering a lovely rural location the property also enjoys a separate
