"Stambourne"

Built in the the early 1900s, "Stambourne" was located in the centre of Port Macquarie and owned by a prominent local family before being relocated in 1980 to its idyllic location in the hinterland.

Lovingly maintained and enhanced, it proudly embraces its heritage features and has become the centrepiece of this beautiful country property.

Offering wraparound bullnose verandahs, inground pool, charming gardens and a soothing outlook, the home encourages a seamless blend of indoor and outdoor living.

There is a family lounge room connected to the kitchen/dining area and a spacious separate lounge. The kitchen boasts a Aga-style oven set into an original fireplace, second oven, gas cooktop and large pantry.

All four bedrooms are generously proportioned with the main enjoying a walk-in wardrobe, and ensuite. The main bathroom has a clawfoot bath and separate shower.

Polished floorboards, leadlight windows, 12 foot ceilings and the wonderful central hallway are just some of its standout features.

The land offers around 20 acres cleared to pasture with two dams and the remainder being bush/forest with several trails.

Completing this delightful offering is a three-bay shed, double carport and a sealed road to the driveway.
